By the King,

A PROCLAMATION,

Requiring Passes formerly granted to Ships and Vessels trading in the Way of the Algerine Cruizers, to be returned into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain; and other Passes to be issued of a New Form.

GEORGE R.

WHereas by our Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Fourth Day of October, in the First Year of our Reign, we did Charge and Require, that the Owners and Masters of all Ships and Vessels belonging to our loving Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland, as well as our Foreign Governments and Plantations, which should have Occasion to trade to Portugal, the Canaries, Guinea, the Indies, into the Mediterranean, or elsewhere, in the Way of the Cruizers of the Government of Algier, should be furnished with Passes of the Form thereby directed, by or before the Thirtieth Day of July, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and fifteen. And whereas our Commissioners for Executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, have humbly represented unto us, that it may have happened, that when such Ships or Vessels have either been taken in Time of War, or disposed of by Sale in remote Parts, the Passes issued to them, as aforesaid, may have fallen into the Hands of Foreigners, or have been sold to them with the Ships or Vessels, the latter being directly contrary to the Bonds entred into by the Masters of such Ships and Vessels to return the aforesaid Passes, that so they may be Cancelled at the Admiralty Office: And our said Commissioners for Executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, having further represented unto us, that they have been informed, that several Ships and Vessels, belonging to Foreign Princes or States, have by some indirect Means procured and carried on their Trade with such Passes, as aforesaid; which indirect Proceedings are not only prejudical to our Trading Subjects, and our Revenue, but may occasion Misunderstandings between us and the aforesaid Government of Algier: For preventing whereof we have thought fit, by the Advice of our Privy-Council, to publish this our Royal Proclamation, hereby declaring, that all such Passes of the Old Form, which have been issued before the Date of this our Royal Proclamation, shall not continue in Force longer than for the Space of Twelve Months from the Date hereof (excepting such as have been granted to such Ships or Vessels as are gone or going to the East-Indies, or to the South-Seas, or any other long Trading Voyages.) And we do hereby strictly Charge and Command all our loving Subjects, who are, or shall be possessed of any such Passes, that they do, within the Space of Twelve Months from the Date of this our Royal Proclamation, as aforesaid, return the same (excepting such as before excepted) into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, in order to their being Cancelled; and that they do furnish themselves with Passes of a New Form, under the Hands and Seals of our Commissioners for Executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, in lieu thereof, for their several Ships and Vessels, according to the Treaties concluded between us and the said Government of Algier, and our Instructions given to our said Commissioners for Executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland touching the same.

Given at our Court at Kensington the Nineteenth Day of July, in the Eighth Year of our Reign.

God save the KING.

Whitehall,

Whitehall, July 23.

The following humble Addreſs having been tranſmitted from Edinburgh to his Grace the Duke of Roxburghe one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Convention of your Majeſty's Royal Boroughs of Scotland, humbly crave Leave, now when aſſembled in our annual Meeting, to teſtify to your Majeſty our juſt Abhorrence of the wicked Deſigns of ſuch of your undutiful Subjects, as have in Concert with Traitors Abroad, conſpired to diſturb the Peace of your Dominions, by raiſing a Rebellion in your Kingdom of Great Britain, which have been ſo happily diſcovered by your Majeſty's great Care and Prudence.

The Concern for our holy Religion, which engaged your Majeſty's Royal Boroughs to act a zealous and vigorous Part in promoting the Reformation from Popery; the lively Impreſſions they ſtill retain of the Danger their Rights and Privileges were brought under before the late happy Revolution, when Magiſtrates were impoſed upon ſeveral of them by the Deſpotick Power of the Sovereign, contrary to the publick Laws; the firm Perſwaſion they have, that Trade and Commerce, in which they are ſo particularly concerned, cannot flouriſh in Britain, but under a moderate and well regulate Adminiſtration, muſt for ever determine them to act with their utmoſt Vigour and Steadineſs for Support of a Government which was founded upon Principles of Liberty, which hath been eſtabliſhed by a Proſecution of the ſame generous Maxims, the Exerciſe of which, when lodged in the Hands of a Proteſtant Prince, who makes it his Pleaſure, as well as his Glory, to receive no other Obedience than what the Law commands, muſt give the greateſt Security to the Religion we ſo much value, and the fulleſt Aſſurance to your Majeſty's Royal Boroughs of the Preſervation of theſe Privileges, which the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Predeceſſors thought proper to beſtow upon them, and which only Arbitrary Princes endeavoured to deſtroy. We are,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt faithful, and moſt obedient Subjects and Servants.

Signed in the Name, and in Preſence of the Convention, by John Wightman Lord Provoſt of Edinburgh, their Præſes.

Vienna, July 15. A general Diet of the States of the Kingdom of Hungary being ſummoned to meet at Presbourg the 10th of laſt Month, a great Number of the Nobility and of the Repreſentatives of the Counties and Cities appeared there on that Day, and having according to the Cuſtom of that Country waited ſome Days to give Time to the reſt to arrive, they began their Conſultations on the 30th, and came to an Agreement for ſetling the Succeſſion in the Houſe of Auſtria to the Crown of that Kingdom on the Female Line: Their unanimous Reſolution was, to ſend a Deputation of 60 Perſons, of whom Cardinal Clacki Archbiſhop of Colocza was Chief, to repreſent to the Emperour, that they acknowledged for Succeſſors to that Crown the Archdutcheſſes his Imperial Majeſty's Daughters, and all the Females of the Houſe of Auſtria, with their Deſcendants, in Failure of Male Iſſue, according to the Order of Primogeniture, in the Manner eſtabliſhed in all the other Kingdoms and Territories belonging and ſubject to his Imperial Majeſty and his his moſt Auguſt Houſe; determining to remain for ever indiſſolubly united with his Imperial Majeſty's other Kingdoms and Dominions, ſo that in all Time coming the ſame may be governed by one Head. On the 2d Inſtant the Cardinal and the other Deputies arrived here, and on the 3d in the Forenoon had Audience of his Imperial Majeſty at the Favorita, whither they went in 32 Coaches with ſix Horſes each. The Cardinal made a Speech, repreſenting the Zeal and Affection of the whole Kingdom towards his Imperial Majeſty and Archiducal Family, expreſſed in their forementioned free and unanimous Reſolution; which they moſt humbly beſought him to accept, and alſo invited him to the Diet at Presbourg: His Imperial Majeſty was pleaſed to declare his Acceptance of their ſaid Reſolution, and they had the Honour to kiſs his Hand: Then the Cardinal in the Name of all the Deputies deſired to be allowed the Honour to make their Compliments to Her Imperial Majeſty, as Queen of Hungary, which being granted, they were admitted to her Majeſty's Preſence, the Cardinal made a Speech to her proper for the Occaſion, and all the Deputies had the Honour to kiſs her Hand: At their Deſire, the two Archduteheſſes her Daughters were brought into the ſame Apartment, and they kiſſed their Hands likewiſe. The Deputies returning in the ſame Order they went, to Cardinal Cſacki's Houſe in this City, were very magnificently treated by his Eminency. On the 6th Inſtant their Imperial Majeſties ſet out from hence for Presbourg; at Walſtal they were met and complimented in the Name of the States of Hungary, by their Deputies, who having been graciouſly received and admitted to kiſs their Imperial Majeſties Hands, went back to the ſaid States, who waited their Majeſties coming in the Neighbourhood of Presbourg, where a magnificent Tent was raiſed; into which their Majeſties entring, placed themſelves on two Seats, and were complimented in a Speech by the Cardinal of Saxe-Zeitz Primate of the Kingdom. Thence their Majeſties, with the States of Hungary, proceeded into Presbourg with great Pomp, his Imperial Majeſty and the ſaid States in very rich Habits being all on Horſeback, and the Empreſs in a Coach, attended by the Ladies of her Court in three other Coaches. Their Majeſties were received at the Caſtle by the Cardinals of Saxe-Zeitz and of Cſacky, accompanied by ſeveral Biſhops, Abbots and others of the Clergy, and all entring the Chapel of the Caſtle Te Deum was ſung to Muſick. On the 8th in the Morning the Emperour being ſeated on his Throne, and the States attending, Count Illeſhazy Chancellour of the Kingdom did in the Hungarian Language acquaint the States with certain Propoſitions from his Imperial Majeſty, after which the Emperour made a Speech to them in Latin, and gave thoſe Propoſitions in Writing to the Cardinal of Saxe-Zeitz; who having aſſured his Majeſty the States would ſpeedily take their Reſolutions upon them, his Majeſty retired, and the States went to their Houſe where the Diet is held.

Paris, July 29, N. S. We have Advice that the Turks have appeared in the Channel of Malta with 12 Sultanas, eight other leſſer Veſſels for War, and 30 Tranſports, which are ſaid to have on Board 8000 Janizaries: One of the Sultanas put into Syracuſa to take in freſh Water; the Officer who commanded her aſſured the Governour of that Place, that they had no Deſign upon any Part of the Dominions of the Emperour, or of the Republick of Venice, this Expedition being ſolely intended againſt the Corſairs of Malta. Sig. Zondodary Great Maſter of the Order of Malta being dead, Don Manuel de Pereyra a Portugueſe is choſen into his Room, and he has ſummoned all the Knights of that Order to repair to their Poſts; but they were under no other Apprehenſion at Malta for that Iſland, or for that of Gozo, than that the Turks might ravage ſome Parts of the Coaſts. Our laſt Advices from Moſcow, ſay an Account was come thither of the Czar's Arrival at Aſtracan, where having Intelligence that the Rebels who had plundered Schamachia were more formidable than had been imagined, his Czariſh Majeſty had therefore ſent for more Troops and Artillery. The Count and Counteſs of Windiſchgratz are ſtill here.
